

Lemon Grove Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 1713

From Our Administrator

Here it is September. Actually the 22nd is the first day of Autumn. With September comes the most important fundraiser of the year for our local community, our Annual Luau. All the proceeds from this event go to the Needy Families Project which we conduct during the holiday season. This is where we are honored to help the less fortunate, or pay it forward, if you will. Please help us as our Fraternal Units, LOOM and WOTM, to make this another successful year. While you are contributing to this worthy cause, you are enjoying a wonderful evening of food, Hawaiian Dancers, raffles, and listening and dancing to the Brown Sugar Band. Tickets are now available in the Social Quarters.

Don't forget Labor day. Join the celebration; bring your own meat to grill and a side dish to share. It's the unofficial last day of summer. The weather will be great! Come on down and join the fun.

Fraternally,
Ron Woods

Lemon Grove Chapter 2267

From Our Junior Regent

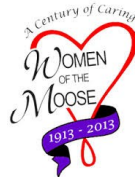

Thanks so much to our co-workers for all their help this past month. Without volunteers we couldn't survive. Unfortunately, it seems to be the same ones every month. Think about it, a couple hours each month isn't very much. All the help we can get is greatly appreciated.

Our Chairmen Dinner will be hosted by Barbara Minich for our Star Recorder Friday Dinner on Sept. 8th. Barbara is making Spiral Ham, home made Potato Salad, Baked Beans and Apple Pie. There will also be a 50/50 Drawing.

Remember the Luau. Tickets are on sale in the Social Quarters. Proceeds go to our Needy Family Program. We are also having a little Labor Day Celebration. So bring down your meat to grill and a side dish to share. Come on down to enjoy the good weather and fellowship with friends.

Fraternally,
Toni Perez

From Our Jr. Regent

We continue to pray for Fran. Our thoughts go out to her and and George and family. Hang in there George, we're with you.

Fraternally,
Toni Perez, Jr. Regent
