

Lemon Grove Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 1713

President's Desk

Hello brothers and sisters;

As we come and go through this first month of 2023 so fast lodge 1713 will be making some changes in February. We are going to be open 5 days a week again finally M-F opening at 3 PM. We will also be starting Taco bar Tuesdays on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the month serving carne asada , pollo asada and al- pastor with all the fixings rice & beans come eat and attend a general meeting.

Also starting in February, we are doing Friday night bingo madness session registration at 7pm games start at 8pm come join in on the cash and prizes the last Friday of the month also come support the WOTM for there delicious dinner beforehand at 6pm.

I want to also announce that I already booked "OUR Irish dancer lady's " (and 1 gentlemen) for our St. Patrick's party on March 18th. Details to follow next bulletin, and last but not least we are putting on a kid's talent show this year and we are close to finalizing the date postings and announcements will follow soon, so get them lads and lassies ready to show off their talents!

We are always in need of help cooking so if you are interested then STEP on up and fill our belly's.

We are also looking for a web master to run our lodge website, contact myself of Teresa for more information.

Thanks to all of you for your support.

Sincerely,

Terence

We  our Volunteers

Hello Sisters,

Well January has come and gone and we are entering the "month of love". With that said, the Chair dinner will be on Feb 10th and will be Valentines themed and is sure to be delicious. Our 2nd dinner will be on Feb 24th and will be baked chicken with all the trimmings ala' Dee Dee so we hope to see you there at either or both dinners as your support is crucial for the continuation of our chapter.

Monday dinners are still suspended due to lack of volunteer participation. Please see our calendar for upcoming events.

We also had our very first Golden Gavel ceremony, honoring our Jr. Past Regent, Stacy Sorensen, thank you to all the members who came to honor her and participated in our potluck.

We are excited to share that we have secured the Irish Dancers for our St. Patty's Day celebration to take place in March. Although it is a Lodge dinner, the raffle baskets are usually supplied by the WOTM as a fundraiser for us so we will need volunteers to provide raffle baskets. Here are some ideas. Spa day type baskets, family game or movie night baskets, kid's baskets (various age groups), wine and cheese baskets, chocolate or coffee or tea baskets, BBQ baskets, ice cream sundae baskets and of course beer or booze baskets as we are hoping for a stupendous outcome.

Again, thank you to all the volunteers both WOTM and Lodge members. Volunteers are the lifeblood of both the WOTM and the Lodge, without us there is no WOTM or Lodge.

Yours truly,

Dee Dee Tillis
Sr. Regent

ILLNESS & DISTRESS:

Continued prayers for our brothers Tyler Stein and Dan Papp. Also please keep Carlos Verduzco and family in your thoughts this month as his mother passed away last month.

Fraternally,
Chaplin- Manny Romo &

Heart of the Community posting:

Coming soon to Paramount Plus and local theaters this summer "Table for Two". A romantic/thriller where the wicked are put in their place by whatever means necessary. Directed by Tom Logan (General Hospital, Camping Buddies) and written by combat veteran and retired NCIS member Corey Ramsey and produced by Lemon Grove's own Gerren Hall.

Table for Two is a film made by the hands of a multiple active and retired military veterans in San Diego. Under the banner CR Productions, a local production company in San Diego committed to providing opportunities in art and entertainment for those who've proudly served our country.

We extend our deepest thanks to Lemon Grove 1713 for helping us see this amazing project through and proudly salute its members and their veterans.

Best,
Gerren Hall
